LIQUOR CASE.Lahaina Excited Over Trial of Japs for Selling Wine.LAHAINA, July 15.—Last week four Japanese were arrested on a charge of selling wine without a license. One has been acquitted, two have been found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs of court, and the fourth is to be tried on Monday.
John Richardson defends them all, and has given notice of appeal in both cases. It took from Monday till Friday afternoon to hear two of the cases.
The witnesses, who are Japanese, are sleeping every night at the court house under police protection.VOLCANIC SMOKE ON MAUI.PAIA, Maui, July 15.—The light from

A NOTABLE METHODIST

BISHOP NEWMAN'S PROMINENT

CAREER.

An Orator and Organizer Far in Advance of His Fellows—Close Friend of President Grant.

Bishop Newman whose death took place fortnight ago has been one of the most conspicuous figures in modern Methodism. His abilities as an orator and organizer first attracted attention during his stay in New Orleans, where he was sent by the General Conference at the close of the war. From that time his rise to fame was rapid, and in the early seventies he was called to take charge of the Metropolitan church at Washington, D. C. President Grant was one of his parishioners. Upon the retirement of General Grant, Dr. Newman resigned his pastorate to become the ex-President's chaplain, and in that capacity made a tour of the world with the general. Upon Grant's death he preached the funeral sermon. Another life long friend of Bishop Newman was Senator Stanford. When Leland Stanford, Jr. died, Dr. Newman came to this city to conduct the obsequies.Three years ago Bishop Newman was assigned to the Pacific coast, with residence at San Francisco. From the hour of his arrival he began a systematic visitation of the churches which resulted in a general material and spiritual uplift. His untiring efforts, however, undermined his strength, and a few months later he was obliged to retire to Europe for a protracted rest. A few months ago, having rounded out a ministry of fifty years, he asked for and received the assignment to the Wyoming Conference, where his ministry began. He was able to preside but a few hours, that being his last official service to the church. He retired to Saratoga, N. Y., where in the quiet of his home he gave his remaining days to a peaceful contemplation of a beneficent life.

Bishop Newman was born in New York City September 1, 1826.

CONTRACT LABOR.

Maui Debating Society Divided Equally

on the Question.

PAIA, Maui, July 15.—The Makawao Debating Society held its regular July meeting last night in the Foreign church parlors, Paia. The attendance was rather light, many being kept away by the threatening weather, amongst them being three of the leaders in the debate. Three members present were selected to take their places, so the discussion devolved into an impromptu affair, and was thrown open to all present. The question was "Resolved, that the further introduction of contract labor would be deter-mental to the best interests of the Hawaiian Islands," and was led by W. O.
Aiken and W. E. Beckwith on the affirmative, and F. A. Alexander and D.
C. Lindsay on the negative.Following their volunteer remarks were made by W. S. Nicoll, R. F. Engle and F. C. Atherton and Mr. Hobron, of Honolulu. The vote resulted in tie, and was allowed to stand so. Withal, the were but few present, and the question not prepared, the discussion was very interesting and enjoyable.Question chosen for the next debate was "Resolved, that trusts tend to promote the greatest good to the greatest number."Interest in the society has lagged of late, and it is hoped that members and their friends will stir themselves, and have a big meeting next time.OLD DITCH FILLED.LAHAINA, July 15.—The ditch in the road that runs from the main street to the Roman Catholic church is being filled in. When it is finished this will make a good carriage road of one that is barely wide enough for two horses to pass each other. It is not generally known that it used to be the custom in Lahaina, and that the ditch in the middle was torn out by the water from a cloud burst in the mountains, early in the fifties.TO SUCCEED SCOTT.PAIA, Maui, July 15.—It is reported that Alfred Haysden, deputy sheriff at Lahaina, is to succeed Mr. Scott as deputy at Wailuku, that C. E. Lindsay, deputy sheriff at Hana, will take the same position at Lahaina, and that H.
Z. Kaipo, captain of the Hana police, will be promoted to the deputy sheriff-ship there.MAUI PERSONALS.PAIA, Maui, July 15.—Harry Waterhouse returns to the city tonight.
Miss Fanny Engle leaves today for Honolulu, en route to Northfield, Mass., where she will enter Mr. Moody's school.Polo this afternoon on the Sunnyside ku Sugar Co. bought in the six lots of land at Nahiku, sold at auction by the Sub-Agent of Public Lands, at the Land Office, Paia, at noon today. Some half dozen people were present, but there was no bid above the upset price.

The land aggregated 365 9-10 acres and sold for $4432.50.AN ACCIDENT.PAIA, Maui, July 15.—Miss Mary Laughlin of Oakland, fell from a runaway horse on Saturday afternoon last, and fortunately escaped with but a severe shaking up, and some slight bruises. She was confined to the house for several days in consequence.ROAD TO HILO WHARF.Work will shortly be commenced on the widening of the present road leading to the outer wharf, and this thoroughfare will be put in excellent condition. Until lately the present road has been large enough for the traffic passing over it, but since the wharf has come into more general use, better facilities for freightage and travel have become necessary.—Hilo Tribune.FRONT STREET, HILO.The work of widening Front street seems to have commenced in a way, and for the past few days a small force of men has been employed in removing some of the more unsightly buildings on the makai side of that thoroughfare.
—Hilo Tribune.WAIKAEA BRIDGE.HILO, July 15.—The piling for the new bridge to span the Waikaele river at the mouth has nearly all been placed in position, and the work of completion is waiting the arrival of the required material.—Hilo Tribune.BORN.KAHEI—At Hana, Kauai, July 11,
